

The Record of the Greatest Financier of Modern Times

Reads like fiction. The astonishing success of The Cable is also a source of marvel upon until the pertinent facts are considered, then everything is plain.

The Secret of Our Success is in the Grade of Goods We Sell

So thoroughly are we convinced that the line of Pianos we make is the finest line of instruments in the world that we have adopted the plan of moulding The Cable Company's trade mark in the iron frame of the Piano and we announce to the world boldly that the name is a Guarantee not Only of Durability of Material and Workmanship, But an Absolute Assurance of Superior Piano Manufacture.

Society in Mecklenburg

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

THE MECKLENBURG, CHAS. CITY, VA., April 20.—The new house of the Mecklenburg has been cut for the first time this spring and now look like a carpet of green velvet refreshed by April showers, and every walk way has been bordered with young trees of many varieties; flowers have been planted, and the gardens are doing well; fruit will be abundant, which has not been the case in many years here.

A great many improvements are under way here, on definite plans, in, and outside of the hotel. A children's play ground will be a feature this season and will be in sight of the hotel. The water and the pure air can't be improved on, however, a first at the hotel holding the World's Fair award as the best known.

During the past month there have been a greatly increased number of guests from Virginia and North Carolina cities, and from Richmond in particular. Miss M. E. Patterson, of Richmond, leaves to-day to spend a week with her relatives in South Boston, before returning home, to meet her husband who has been West.

Mr. Henry Cook, long chief clerk of The Mecklenburg Hotel, will enter upon his duties next week, while Mr. Ira Stone, who has been with the hotel since its opening in 1891, will be here to take his place, next week.

The Mecklenburg Hotel is a strong candidate for the next meeting of the Editors and Newspaper men of Virginia and North Carolina, and is offering the opportunity to secure a fine assembly of the fraternity here, as it is a most central, convenient and popular place for the meeting.

Among the late arrivals are: Mr. C. L. Pfeiffer, Atlanta, Ga.; Mr. J. S. Pettigrew, Raleigh, N. C.; Stuart Darrington, Camden, N. J.; R. H. Dillard, Blacksburg, Va.; Charles Plunkett, Nashville, Tenn.; A. M. Gilvray and wife, Mrs. W. T. Dabney, Mrs. J. G. Corley and Master Frank Corley, and J. F. Haddock, Richmond, Va.; B. A. Hall, Pittsburg, Penn.; W. A. Jamison and Miss Carrie Jamison, Cincinnati, O.; W. A. Woodford, Baltimore, Md.; A. B. Abram, and D. B. Williams, Richmond, Va. Great numbers took advantage of the low rates this week to visit Richmond.

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 20.—Weddings were the order of the day Wednesday of the current week—three nuptial events engrossing the attention of the community.

At 8:30 o'clock, in Tyron Street Methodist Church, Miss Lola Heath was married to Mr. John Crawford, of Lancaster, S. C. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. T. F. Marr, the pastor, and the beautifully decorated church was filled with friends of the happy couple.

Miss Heath is a daughter of Mr. B. D. Heath, banker and capitalist and prior to her wedding was the belle of the younger social set at Crawford, a prominent young druggist of the South Carolina city.

At 9 o'clock, in Tenth Avenue Presbyterian Church, Rev. George W. Bell, officiating, Miss Daisy Viola Orr became the bride of Mr. Frank Frankfort, of Boston, Mass.

Miss Orr is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Orr and is an accomplished and worthy young woman, and the groom is a successful young business man.

A pretty home wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allison, on West Tenth Street at 8 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Mary Catherine Allison, became the wife of Mr. Chandler W. Cook, Rev. Martin D. Hardin, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, performed the ceremony, which was witnessed by a few friends.

Mr. Joseph Pearson Caldwell has issued invitations to the wedding reception of his daughter, Miss Louise Caldwell, to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allison, on West Tenth Street at 8 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Mary Catherine Allison, became the wife of Mr. Chandler W. Cook, Rev. Martin D. Hardin, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, performed the ceremony, which was witnessed by a few friends.

The marriage of Miss Willie Hill, daughter of Mr. Sarah F. Torrence, to Mr. A. M. Mc Bride, of Fayetteville, will take place next Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's mother, Rev. Martin D. Hardin, D. D., officiating.

Mrs. Gillespie Sadler entertained at supper Monday evening at her home, 1015 North Main Street, her guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Smythe, of Charleston, S. C., who is the guest of Mrs. Charles A. Blaud, of Baltimore, Md., and Mrs. De L'Alie Sadler, of New York City. Mrs. De L'Alie Sadler won the first prize and Mrs. Smythe, the consolation.

Miss Edna Whisman's piano recital in the auditorium of the College of William and Mary, was one of the musical events of the season. Miss Whisman's fine interpretation of many of the master composers was highly appreciated by a large audience.

The Home Science section of the Woman's Club held an interesting meeting Monday evening at the home of Mrs. W. S. Allison, on West Tenth Street at 8 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Mary Catherine Allison, became the wife of Mr. Chandler W. Cook, Rev. Martin D. Hardin, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, performed the ceremony, which was witnessed by a few friends.

For a six weeks' trip to Boston. Miss Julia Jackson Christian is spending several days with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Stenwall Jackson, here before returning to her school at Baltimore.

LEESBURG, VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LEESBURG, VA., April 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Westmoreland Davis, of Morven Park, have returned from Europe.

Mr. Victor McCabe, son of Judge J. B. McCabe, of this place, passed the naval examinations at Annapolis and will probably be appointed to represent the Eighth Congressional District in the Naval Academy, Va. He is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cockerill, in this place.

The late death of Mr. J. D. Youmans, which were burned near Ashburn, on Monday night, were insured to the amount of $500. This only partially covers the loss.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Taylor, of Waynesboro, Va., formerly of this county, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Ella Wyatt, to Mr. William Winston Marshall, of Afton, Va. The marriage will take place in the near future.

The Dayton Scale Company, of Dayton, O., was defeated in their suit for infringement of patent against the Kinchen Scale Company, of this city. The president of the company is Mr. J. M. Kinchen, of Upperville, Va.

SCOTTSDALE, VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SCOTTSDALE, VA., April 20.—Several pleasure parties visited Scottsboro on Easter Monday, taking lunch with them, and making a day of it. Visits were paid to Napier's. Over a hundred rides were numerous and very enjoyable.

Miss Josephine Ryland, of New York, and Miss Ella Hill, of King and Queen, are guests of Mrs. J. H. Fox.

Miss Bessie Hill spent several days at her home here last week and returned to Lynchburg on Monday.

Dr. James Hart, of Richmond, has been visiting friends here.

Misses Nora Dillard, Met Pomeroy, Susie Blair, Daisy Davis, and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Blair, of Richmond, are guests of Mrs. J. L. Pitts at her home here.

Mrs. J. L. Pitts has been sick for several days.

Mr. A. G. Bell visited Richmond Wednesday, for entertainment will be given here May 17th, by the pupils, teachers and friends of the Scottsboro graded school. An overture, entitled "The House of the Future," will be a feature of the programme.
